Early Years Newsletter

What fun we have had chopping, making, cooking and tasting vegetable soup!

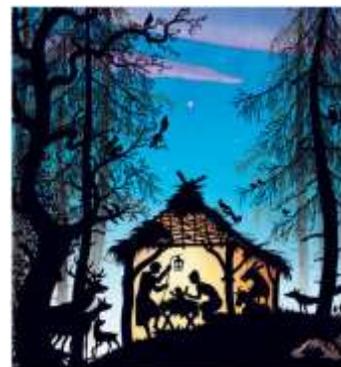

- Thank you for all of the great contributions to your children's Learning Journals - they really are appreciated and help us to paint an even fuller picture of their development. More speech bubbles required? Just ask!
- In phonics this week, Ash children will be covering 'g' and 'o' and the tricky word 'I'.
- Thank you also for attending the Parents' Evenings - it really is good to catch up with you all
- Can Ah Class children all have warm joggers and a sweatshirt in their PE kit bag when we return from the half term holiday please. They will also be able to wear this warm kit, under their waterproofs, for forest sessions
- A reminder for Saplings, and their lunch boxes, we are a nut-free zone

Advance notice

ALL the Early Years children will be going to a performance of The Gruffalo, at Cambridge Arts Theatre, at 10.30am on Wednesday 11 November. We will travel to the theatre in a coach. Further details will follow after half term.

You are also all invited to a 'Very Special Christmas afternoon' on Friday 11 December, at 2pm

The children are getting very tired now. Please have a quiet weekend and let the children rest if they will!
