

'Believing and Achieving'

This half-term's project is going to focus on our Erasmus project 'Alice in Wonderland' as well.

Chapter 3: A Caucus-Race and a long Tale

However, when they had been running half an hour or so and were quite dry again, the Dodo suddenly called out, 'The race is over!' and they all crowded round it panting and asking, 'But who has won?'

All schools in the project will use this chapter to introduce different actions we can do to raise funds to a charity. A charity or a not-for-profit event will be planned and organised in each partner school. Each school will establish a clear purpose for the event and show how the money raised may contribute changing real lives.

Your home learning task is to research: Fairtrade.

- 1. You can collect interesting facts by researching the internet or by interviewing people: what is it, what they do, ways to raise funds for this charity in our school, the charity's impact, what happens to the funds, how does it change real lives.*
- 2. You can present the findings of your research in any way you prefer e.g. PPT or information texts, persuasive letter to local super markets - more opportunities for schools to choose Fairtrade products, advertising brochure / leaflet, poster, poem, diary, Bar graphs, blueprints, comic strips, instructions, inventions, crosswords etc*
- 3. The challenge is to make your project interesting and attractive to the reader. Please feel free to include drawings and pictures or - if you wish - to make something!*
- 4. Your challenge starts today! Your project is due in on February 8th.*

Please feel free to ask your teachers for more information and guidance. We are all looking forward to enjoying your projects.
